

I support RM-10352. This bandplan will provide for experimentation of the newer digital modes in the future. This plan should also reduce FCC cost by reducing the number of interference reports caused by wide signal modes (SSB). This plan is consistent with all other HF bandplans. I support the adoption of this plan.